Designation:

Liber/Folio: CWM 4046/690

Historic Name:

Date: 1909

Architect/Builder: Baldwin & Pennington, arch.

Style (if appropriate): Classical Revival

Description:

The first floor storefront is enclosed in a flat stone framing arch with bell profiles at the corners. The storefront has metallic panel infill and modern plate glass windows and doors. A recessed modern doorway with access to the second floor office space is at the north end of the facade. A projecting paneled belt course separates the two floors. The upper floor has four plate glass windows with fixed transoms. The transoms have vertical muntins. The windows are divided by three striated marble engaged columns with Ionic capitals. The window group is flanked by paneled pilasters rising to consoles at each end of the modillion cornice. A low parapet wall above the cornice terminates the facade. The consoles are topped by stone globes.

Significance:

Area: architecture

Level: local

The low-rise facade of this building is an architectural complement to the Professional Building (B-2167). Both were owned by Thomas O'Neill and designed by Baldwin and Pennington.

DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (If known) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE
344 North Charles, Lot# 11, is an attached building of stone channeled masonry. The front facade has two stories and four bays. The first story consists of two rectangular wind doors and two large window panes. One door is a glass central entrance with a rectangular transom and the two panes on either side. There is an aluminum siding over the top of the windows, and above the vestibule to the far right the facade is removed and boarded up. A freeze is above the first story and below the second story windows. There is a diamond shaped motif below the first and third columns. The second story has four rectangular windows, 1 pane with an eyebrow window, 4x1 panes above. There are no lintels but an entablature above the windows. The sills are wooden. Three engaged ionic columns are in between the windows and plinths are on either side of the second story with pilasters. Above each pilaster is a spherical ball. There is a freeze above the windows with a circular motif above each column. The stone plain cornice is below the flat roof with a parapet between them. There is a shell motif on the parapet above each column. From the back can be seen a gabled roof and a brick chimney on the left. The first story has a door and three windows with concrete sills and half arched lintels. The second story is the same except for a fourth window. The building is a bit smaller than the rest of the buildings on Charles street.
